

KEY 2: A WILLINGNESS TO CHANGE

“So, you’re tired of going around the track in your faith and you won't change? But let’s be honest, nobody likes to change, right? When the villain has narrated your story for a long time, you forget your inheritance. Jesus died on a cross, so you were no longer a slave because His precious blood set you free.

And if you want to rise into all Jesus died for, if you want to see remarkable things in your life, unlocking the power of Communion is one of the ways to achieve this, yes, it is!

However, it’s the change that you’re going to experience that helps with the power. It’s your new way of seeing Communion, that the villain is afraid of. He knows that your story is going to change from now on, so he’s going to do everything he can to make sure you only take the first step, but then give up because it’s just too scary to continue.

Let me encourage you, my friend. Don’t give up now!”

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit.
